

In memory of Roderick Boyd Porter (8/12/47 - 3/11/93)

"The Illuminated Fountain"

for Christina Price, soprano, and John Mack, oboe

Francis Zaguirre

from "Journey with Music", 1949

Klausjunge Roy

Op. 140, 3/28-30/93

♩ = 56-60

Oboe mf

Soprano mf (A)

We have come raw from the sea and climbed cold from the mountains, —

Oboe

Soprano and gladly — (B) mp

We have known the il-

Oboe mp mf mp

Soprano illuminated fountain

©

And keep soft-splashing and misting on the mind how the drops fall golden when words, when words fall kind

©

Back to the fragrant laughter that makes the water blue, the dream that surges purple, the love - that turns it - to escaping streams that mirror - a heart's clear-glow -

©

God is good that talking - is gay and

(F)

Sweet (t) and slow
And we who have seen it dancing and watched its jewelled falls - cascading -

- in reflection down clean bare walls

Can face our lonely journey - back home to sea - or mountain

with music

We have known the il-

espr.: poco tenuto

espr.: poco tenuto

fountain.

luminated

a tempo

mp

poco rit.

c. 4'00" 3'50"

$\frac{K}{G}$
Op. 140
3/30/93

With a deep bow of appreciation to Stravinsky's "Symphony of Psalms"